VISION, MISSION AND PHILOSOPHY OF THE DEPARTMENT

Vision

The Departmental vision is to be a world class training and research centre for providing effective extension service and achieving sustainable rural development.

Mission

The mission is to promote rural transformation through problem-oriented research, capacity building and community service.

Philosophy

- The Department plays leadership role in the nation in training of middle and high level manpower in the theory and practice of behavioural and social change for increased agricultural production and improved standard of living.
- Attainment of sustainable agricultural and rural development through high competence in innovative and participatory approaches.
- Departmental vision and mandate statements perfectly align with the UI project and contemporary global development goals.
